

Appendix H

Services Received During the 2001-2002 Program Year

	New Families		Continuing Families		All Families
	Freq	%	Freq	%	Freq	%
Services Received (% indicating 'Yes')	(n=689)		(n=949)		(n=1638)
Child development or parent services	451	66%	653	69%	1104	67%
Education information or assistance	225	33% ^a	224	24% ^a	449	27%
Employment information or assistance	130	19%	158	17%	288	18%
Health care information or assistance	106	15%	161	17%	267	16%
Pregnancy support services	44	6%	43	5%	87	5%
Referral for child care services	52	8%	83	9%	135	8%
Home management or life skills training	95	14%	118	12%	213	13%
Recreational or social activities	225	33% ^a	413	44% ^a	638	39%
Child programs or services	150	22%	170	18%	320	20%
After-school programs	95	14% ^a	89	9% ^a	184	11%
Summer camps	58	8%	103	11%	161	10%
Family literacy	52	8%	86	9%	138	8%
Emergency services	174	25%	204	22%	378	23%
Food emergency services	79	12%	119	13%	198	12%
Clothing emergency services	64	9%	89	9%	153	9%
Housing emergency services	69	10% ^a	69	7% ^a	138	8%
Transportation emergency services	51	7%	61	6%	112	7%
Utilities emergency services	35	5%	57	6%	92	6%
Employment emergency services	38	6%	41	4%	79	5%
Mental health emergency services	28	4%	29	3%	57	4%
Drug & alcohol emergency services	5	1%	13	1%	18	1%
Other emergency services	36	5% ^a	37	4% ^a	73	5%
Other (non-emergency) services	130	19%	128	14%	258	16%

^a Continuing families' values at outcome are significantly different (p<.05) than new families' values at outcome (based on Pearson chi-square statistic).