

Appendix J

Parents' Views of the Family Center: Judging the Results of the Family Center 2001-2002 Program Year

	Number responding "Always" or "Usually"	Percent responding "Always" or "Usually"
Do Family Center services, supports, and activities...
Help you feel more informed about how your child develops? (n=1746)	1689	97%
Help you feel more confident in your parenting? (n=1746)	1674	96%
Help you take better care of your children and family? (n=1733)	1644	95%
Help your young children be better prepared for entering school? (n=1709)	1625	95%
Help you feel more in control of your life? (n=1730)	1610	93%
Help you and your family feel more a part of your community? (n=1724)	1583	92%
Help you feel a greater sense of hope for your own personal growth? (n=1719)	1564	91%
Help your school-age children be more successful in school? (n=1547)	1410	91%
Help to keep your family together? (n=1602)	1434	90%
Help you and your family members get along better? (n=1707)	1504	88%
Help you and your family feel more valued in your community? (n=1712)	1499	88%
Help you feel a greater sense of hope for your community? (n=1696)	1445	85%
Help your community feel more united - working together toward common goals? (n=1668)	1411	85%
Help you feel that your home life is safer and more secure? (n=1693)	1438	85%
Help you feel you have more to contribute to your community, and your community has more to offer to you? (n=1684)	1422	84%
Help you and your family feel safer in your community? (n=1696)	1409	83%
Help you and your family have fewer physical health problems? (n=1571)	1305	83%