

Free Available PIRC Printed Resources (First Come, First Served!)

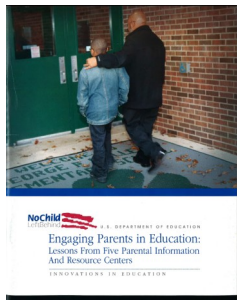

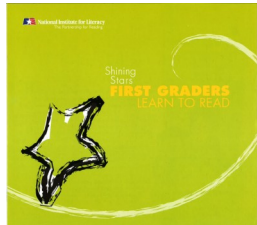

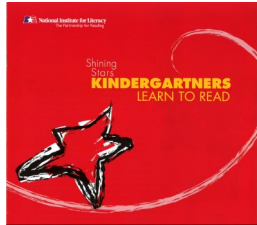

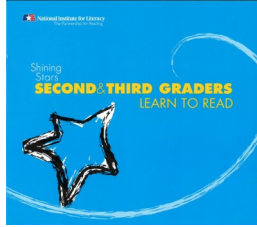

To place an order, please contact Wenda Deardorff, PA PIRC Specialist, at 717-763-1661 x116 or wdeardorff@csc.csiu.org

	Title	Language	Description
1	Parents' Guide to Child Development and School Success	English	This booklet contains information about the important role parents and caregivers play in the success of their children and in the success of their local schools.
2	Parents' Guide to Child Development and School Success	Spanish	This booklet contains information about the important role parents and caregivers play in the success of their children and in the success of their local schools.
3	No Child Left Behind: What Parents Need to Know	Spanish	This is a basic primer about NCLB written by the US Department of Education.
4	PA PIRC Brochure	English	This tri-fold brochure explains the purpose and goals of the PA PIRC.

	Title	Language	Description
5	Toolkit for Hispanic Families	Spanish/English	This toolkit contains a variety of brochures with tips for families about education.
6	A Child Becomes a Reader: Proven Ideas from Research For Parents – Birth Through Preschool	English	Includes ideas about how parents can help their child become a reader when they talk, play, and read together. This booklet also provides ideas about what effective literacy programs look like in day care centers, preschools, and classrooms.
7	A Child Becomes a Reader: Proven Ideas From Research For Parents – Kindergarten Through Grade 3	English	Includes information about the Building Blocks of Reading and Writing for students K-3.
8	Dad's Playbook: Coaching Kids to Read	English	Dads can learn how to coach their children by learning simple skills to help their kids become even better readers.
9	Put Reading First: The Research Building Blocks for Teaching Children to Read	English	This guide provides analysis and discussion in the five areas of reading.

	Title	Language	Description
10	Shining Stars: Second and Third Graders Learn to Read	English	Describes strategies proven to work by the most rigorous scientific research available on the teaching of reading. This publication provides parents with ways to help their second and third grade children learn to read; it includes activities parents can
11	Shining Stars: Kindergartners Learn to Read	English	Describes strategies proven to work by the most rigorous scientific research available on the teaching of reading. This publication provides parents with ways to help their kindergarten-age children learn to read; it includes activities parents can use
12	Shining Stars: First Graders Learn to Read	English	Describes strategies proven to work by the most rigorous scientific research available on the teaching of reading. This publication provides parents with ways to help their first grade children learn to read; it includes activities parents can use
13	Engaging Parents In Education: Lessons from Five Parental Information and Resource Centers	English	This resource identifies innovative and successful education programs across the country that are closing the achievement gap with profiles of five Parental Information and Resource Centers.

	Title	Language	Description
14	Tips for Reading Tutors	English and Spanish	This brochure offers information about how tutoring helps children
15	A Parent's Handbook: How to Be Involved In Your Child's Education	English	This resource discusses the meaning of involvement and the benefits of getting involved.
16	A Parent's Handbook: How to Be Involved In Your Child's Education	Spanish	This resource discusses the meaning of involvement and the benefits of getting involved.
17	Helping Your Child With Homework	English	This resource explains the benefits of homework, how to get started with your child, what to expect and how you can help your child with homework.
18	Put Reading First: Helping Your Child Learn to Read – Preschool Through Grade 3	English	Success in school starts with reading. Learn important skills in helping your child to read.